

Security statement

Your AfroCentric Technologies (Pty) Ltd account information is password - protected for your privacy and security. AfroCentric safeguards the security of the data received by AfroCentric, whether it is by physical, electronic or managerial procedures.

In certain areas of the website, AfroCentric uses industry standard SSL - encryption to enhance the security of data transmission. While striving to protect personal information, AfroCentric cannot guarantee the security of the information, transmitted to AfroCentric and users are urged to take every precaution to protect all personal data.